To Whom It May Concern

I wish to confirm Arpit Gole's participation as a volunteer student representative on the University of Adelaide's Student Engagement Committee. In his role on the Committee, Arpit has contributed around 11 hours of service up to the end of 2021.

The Student Engagement Committee is a forum for students to discuss a broad range of issues of concern with the University. Its aim is to enhance student engagement in University decision-making and governance, and foster a more systemic student voice. The Committee serves as a conduit through which student perspectives can be directly communicated to senior academic and administrative staff of the University. The Committee was chaired in 2021 by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic), Professor Jennie Shaw.

Arpit has been a valuable contributor at meetings of the Committee and I have no hesitation in endorsing his skills.

Yours sincerely

Michael Physick
Manager, Student Affairs
